

Candidate construction changes physicality

Certify the candidate map

At $|\omega|/\Gamma = 2$, the full-step and two-half-step CPTP intervals are disjoint.

On nonrotating damping, the Richardson extrapolate is non-CPTP even when both inputs are channels.

The guard certifies the binary step; an empty or unresolved admissible set triggers a physical fallback.